RAMI SHERMAN - Born in 1953 in Israel to holocaust survivors, Rami grew up on a northern kibbutz. In 1972 he joined an elite IDF unit (now named Sayeret Matkal - the General Staff Special Forces), progressing through combat soldier course to Officers' School. In 1976, when an Air France airliner was hijacked and rerouted to Entebbe, Rami was the unit's Operations Officer under the command of Yoni Netanyahu z"l. In this capacity, he was involved in preparing the unit for the Operation. Amongst other roles, he coordinated between the unit the Operation commander, and between the unit and the Israeli Air Force. He was one of the 33 officers and soldiers comprising the first assault group who freed the hostages.
